MUR # 7084

Complaint against Scott Taylor, individually, and Scott Taylor for Congress, John G. Selph, in his official capacity as treasurer; and Special Operations OPSEC Political Action Committee and Education Fund, Michael Smith, in his official capacity as treasurer, and Scott W. Taylor in his capacity as President and sole controlling member.

To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to 52 U.S.C. § 30109 and 11 C.F.R. § 111.4, Lisa Clarkson files this Complaint against Scott Taylor, an announced candidate for the Republican nomination for the House of Representatives from the Second District of Virginia and against Scott Taylor for Congress, John Selph, in his official capacity as Treasurer; and against Special Operations OPSEC Political Action Committee and Education Fund Inc., Michael Smith in his official capacity as Treasurer, and Scott W. Taylor in his capacity as President and sole controlling member (collectively, "Respondents").

Complainant is an individual citizen, a resident of the 2d congressional district of Virginia and respondent is a member of the Virginia House of Delegates. This complaint is filed in my individual capacity as a citizen of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and is a supplement to my complaint received by your office on June 1, 2016.

Respondent continues to be in violation of federal law, evidencing a flagrant disregard of the statutes and regulations that govern campaigns and committees as more fully detailed below.

Respondent Scott Taylor has a pattern and a history of violating federal law.

I. Respondent Scott Taylor repeatedly ignored federal law and failed to file mandatory reports of receipts and disbursements pursuant to 52 U.S.C. §30104(a)(2) and (i) when he was a candidate for Congress in 2010 and for five years thereafter.

II. Respondent Scott Taylor has evidenced a similar pattern of ignoring federal law in the 2016 election cycle, having committed multiple violations of federal law governing federal campaigns and candidates.

Respondent solicits and accepts contributions from government contractors on eleven (11) separate instances. See Scott Taylor for Congress April 2016 Quarterly FEC Report, <http://docquery.fec.gov/pdf/107/201604159012489107/201604159012489107.pdf>

It is unlawful for a congressional candidate to solicit and accept contributions from a federal government contractor. The individuals listed above are easily identified as heads of organizations that depend on and/or actively solicit and receive funds from federal government contracts. See 52 U.S.C. §30119; 11 C.F.R. §115.1(a) and 115.2.

III. Respondent Scott Taylor repeatedly ignores federal law and fails to comply with the mandatory reports of receipts and disbursements pursuant to 52 U.S.C. §30104(a)(4) as the controlling member of several political committees initiated in 2012 and for four years thereafter.

While serving as President of Special Operations OPSEC, Respondent failed to comply with the reporting requirements for receipts and disbursements of political committees.

Special Operations OPSEC Education Fund Inc. – C30002042:

Special Operations OPSEC Education Fund Inc. (C30002042) registered as an electioneering communication entity subject to specific reporting requirements. See 52 U.S.C. §30104(f); 11 C.F.R. §§104.6 and 104.20.

From 10/11/2012 through 11/04/2012 Respondent intentionally filed reports omitting the required information under 11 C.F.R. §104.20(c)(2).

In fact, Respondent failed to provide the name, address, employer, and occupation of each person sharing or exercising control on all six (6) 24 Hour Notices of Disbursements/Obligations which are required under federal law:

2012:

- RFAI – 24 Hour Notice filed on 03/12/2013 for report filed on 10/16/2012
- RFAI – 24 Hour Notice filed on 03/12/2013 for report filed on 10/20/2012
- RFAI – 24 Hour Notice filed on 03/12/2013 for report filed on 10/23/2012
- RFAI – 24 Hour Notice filed on 03/20/2013 for report filed on 10/24/2012
- RFAI – 24 Hour Notice filed on 03/20/2013 for report filed on 11/01/2012

RFAI – 24 Hour Notice filed on 03/20/2013 for report filed on 11/01/2012

On 03/29/2013 Respondent amended all six reports indicating Scott W. Taylor as the sole, and only, person sharing and exercising control.

Special Operations OPSEC Political Committee – C900013368:

Special Operations OPSEC Political Committee (a/k/a Special Operations OPSEC Political Fund see Miscellaneous Report to FEC filed 12/19/2012) (C900013368) filing as an independent expenditure group pursuant to 52 U.S.C. §30101 and 11 C.F.R. §109.

Respondent failed to file a quarterly report, year-end report, and timely notices. See 11 C.F.R. §109.10(b), (d) and (e).

See Notice of Failure to File October Quarterly:

Respondent's responses continued to violate federal law by failing to be on the correct form (See 11 C.F.R. §109.10(b) & (e)) and failing to include the identifying information of contributors (See 11 C.F.R. §§109.10(c)(1)(vi) and 114.10(f)).

On 04/12/2013 Respondent filed a Miscellaneous Report to FEC stating that "The Committee has ended its work and does not inten[d] to make any further independent expenditures."

See Miscellaneous Report to FEC filed 04/12/2013:

On 02/28/2013 a Form 8872 was filed with the Internal Revenue Service marked as 'final.' See Exhibit #2.

No other reports have been filed with this Commission, or the Internal Revenue Service regarding Special Operations OPSEC Political Committee, connected entity Special Operations OPSEC Education Fund Inc., EIN# 46-0725135.

Only a committee which will no longer receive contributions or make disbursements may terminate. See 52 U.S.C. §30103(d)(1)(I); C.F.R. § 102.3(a)(1). From the reported termination date of 02/28/2013, up and through the present, Respondent continues to solicit funds for Special Operations OPSEC, and has not filed any reports with the Commission.

IV. Respondent Scott Taylor repeatedly ignores federal law and fails to comply with fundraising guidelines pursuant to 52 U.S.C. §30125(e)(1) and (4) as the President and controlling member of several Special Operations OPSEC committees.

Respondent has served as president of Special Operations OPSEC since 2012, up and through the present.

See Wikipedia Page, Special Operations OPSEC Education Fund:
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Special_Operations_OPSEC_Education_Fund

See Special Operations OPSEC Education Fund Inc. website:
www.opsecedu.org

Listing Scott W. Taylor as President and actively seeking contributions:
<http://www.opsecedu.org/contact.html>

As indicated above, nothing has been filed on behalf of Special Operations OPSEC since April of 2013 declaring a termination date of 02/28/2013. Although, Respondent has been actively soliciting contributions since the declared date of termination of 02/28/2013. See Direct Emails from info@scotttaylor.org Exhibit #3.

In fact, Special Operations OPSEC Education Fund has been actively soliciting contributions for the Scott Taylor for Congress committee as evidenced by posts on the OPSEC Team Facebook page on March 4 and May 8, 2016.

See Special Operations OPSEC Facebook page:
<https://www.facebook.com/dishonorgatedisclosure>

See also, page captures from OPSEC Facebook page Exhibit #4.

Respondent has once again completely ignored federal election law by using Special Operations OPSEC's name and resources to fraudulently solicit funds for his congressional campaign (See 52 U.S.C. §§30124(b) and 30125(c); 11 C.F.R. §§300.52 and 300.65).

Arguments and Authorities

Respondent, Scott Taylor, makes absolutely no effort to conform to the federal laws, whether in his first campaign for Congress in 2010, or as President of Special Operations OPSEC Education Fund from 2012 to present, or in his current campaign for Congress (2016). He does not believe these laws apply to him.

Respondent, Scott Taylor, willfully disregards the campaign finance laws and regulations not only as a candidate, but also as the president and controlling member of several committees which have been collecting and soliciting money, yet not reporting same with either this Committee or the Internal Revenue Service.

Respondents need to be held accountable for their actions and omissions, and need to account for all of the monies received and disbursed by these organizations.

Conclusion

Upon information and belief, and based upon the facts contained in this Complaint, Respondents Scott Taylor, individually, and Scott Taylor for Congress, John G. Selph, in his official capacity as treasurer; Special Operations OPSEC Political Action Committee and Education Fund, Michael Smith, in his official capacity as treasurer, and Scott W. Taylor in his capacity as President and sole controlling member; have flagrantly violated federal law and should be audited to fully account for years of unreported contributions to a supposed not-for-profit organization.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lisa Clarkson

State Del. Scott Taylor, a former Navy SEAL, said Saturday he's seeking the Republican Party nomination to replace U.S. Rep. Scott Rigell in the state's 2nd Congressional District.

Taylor, 36, is the second GOP contender to step forward since Rigell, a three-term incumbent, said Thursday he would not seek reelection. Taylor already has experience running for Congress, having competed unsuccessfully against Rigell in a six-man Republican primary in 2010. Rigell went on to win the general election, ousting incumbent Democrat Glenn Nye.

Taylor said among his primary concerns are ending the automatic cuts in national defense – known as sequestration – improving the national economy and putting a stronger focus on computer science education among young students.

"We're in a two-year reprieve now with sequester. But it's coming back," he said. "I want to be a strong voice for our military. Not just spending unnecessarily but, on the flip side, not having indiscriminate cuts."

Taylor said the U.S. has to step up education programs to compete in a global high-tech economy.

"We should be exposing kids to data science in elementary school. ... Instead of just playing games they should be designing them," he said.

The candidate said he agrees with Rigell's efforts to expand his base of supporters beyond traditional Republicans.

"That's exactly how I operate," Taylor said. "When I'm representing people, I represent everyone. I go to black, white, brown events. Latino or gay events. I go everywhere. I think that's what you should do."

Taylor, who is a real estate broker, has been a television commentator and wrote a 2013 book, "Trust Betrayed: Barack Obama, Hillary Clinton, and the Selling Out of America's National Security."

He was elected to the state House of Delegates in 2013 and was unopposed when re-elected in November. He had considered running for lieutenant governor in 2017 but said those plans are on hold now that he's seeking the 2nd District post.

He joins Pat Cardwell, an attorney and first-time candidate, who announced Friday he's also is seeking the GOP nomination. Republican officials haven't decided whether they will choose their nominee in a June primary or a convention.

My Decision

The last few days have been encouraging, to say the least.

I want to tell you about my decision to seek election to the US House of Representatives in Virginia's Second District.

First, let me address my exploration of the Lieutenant Governor's office. It was very humbling, after only being in my third year in Richmond, to have an abundance of conservative elected officials and activists from around Virginia ask me to run. However, before making this decision official, I thought about what Congressman Rigell's plans for the future might be. After all, I competed with him in the 2010 primary. His decision last week to not to seek reelection has made me reconsider where I could best serve and be impactful on the issues that we all hold important.

As many of you know, I'm passionate about national and international issues. I have written a book about how our national security and foreign policies are dangerously headed down the wrong path. Upon Rep. Rigell's announcement, we did a snapshot poll to the district, where well over two to one voters said I should run for Congress. Friday night we asked folks to come over to Town Center and sign petitions and just 15 hours later on Saturday 300 supporters and four news crews showed up. Clearly, there is interest in - and excitement about - this campaign.

I understand very well that in a power vacuum there will be jockeying for position. Some will win, some will lose, and sometimes, entrenched politicians become insecure and make horrible decisions based on bad advice. I am blessed to have an amazingly loyal family, circle of friends, and supportive base. Your belief in what we can accomplish together gives me strength and I promise to stand shoulder-to-shoulder with you in any fight. I will never abandon this community. I will fight hard and I will never quit.

Everyone knows in their hearts that Washington D.C. is broken and people are demanding real, honest change. Those who have been in Washington for a long time have failed to stem sequestration and the weakening of our national security, stop crushing regulatory burdens, and the unrelenting economic hardships on America's families. Together we will be a force multiplier to change America and our community. Those who show up govern us. Join us

Scott Taylor

P.S. We will be having events all around the district. Tomorrow is our second one at Tubby's Tavern, 5:30-7PM, 2224 Virginia Beach BLVD (at the corner of Great Neck Road and Virginia Beach BLVD). We hope to see you there! We need support for this effort. Every dollar helps and is appreciated. Will you help with $25, $50, $100, $500, $1000, or $2700 today?

CHESAPEAKE

State Del. Scott Taylor went directly to U.S. Rep. Randy Forbes' Republican supporters in Chesapeake earlier this week, sponsoring more than 5,500 automated calls urging the voters to tell Forbes to run for re-election in his hometown rather than switch to the nearby 2nd Congressional District.

Taylor, a Virginia Beach Republican seeking the 2nd District seat, wants to stop Forbes from switching from the 4th District, which he has represented in Congress since 2001.

In the 75-second recorded message, a woman who calls herself "Erin" refers to Forbes as "our congressman" and says he "is the only Republican who can win our district." At the end of the message, Taylor is heard saying his campaign paid for the Sunday-night calls.

Forbes is contemplating the switch because this year's redrawing of congressional district boundaries has converted the 4th from a strong Republican region to one where Democrats have a majority. The GOP-leaning 2nd, where Virginia Beach is the largest city, is an open seat because three-term incumbent Scott Rigell is not running this year. Rigell has said he'll endorse Forbes if he moves to the 2nd.

Taylor's phone call to Chesapeake voters, selected because they voted in the 2012 GOP presidential primary, warns that a Democrat will be elected in the 4th if Forbes doesn't run there.

"Over the years, we've invested millions of dollars, time and energy into Randy Forbes. And we have fought for him in past campaigns," the woman said. "This is a time when Randy needs to fight for us – not run off to Virginia Beach because it may be easier to get elected over there. Leaders put themselves at risk for their people – not the other way around."

When asked about the phone calls Wednesday, Forbes spokeswoman Hailey Sadler said in an email: "Congressman Forbes continues to be overwhelmed by the enormous outpouring of support from across the 2nd district. The only thing we've heard about the robocalls is how annoyed people were to receive them."

The technique used by Taylor's campaign is known as a "push poll." It's meant to spread an idea as much as to collect public opinion. The speaker presents an issue with a strong point of view and then asks the recipient whether he or she agrees.

In this case, the Chesapeake voters were asked whether they wanted Forbes to "run to be our congressman and fight for us" or "leave Chesapeake behind and go run for Congress in Virginia Beach."

Of the 5,557 calls, 437 people answered the question, with 97 percent saying Forbes should stay, according to a report by RoboCent, a Virginia Beach-based autodial firm hired by Taylor.

Scott Weldon, spokesman for Taylor's campaign, acknowledged the calls were intended to spread his candidate's views and reach people who might not know about Forbes' quandary.

"We obviously want people to know this is something that is being seriously entertained," Weldon said.

Taylor conducted a separate push poll in Virginia Beach, where more than 2,400 GOP voters were contacted Sunday and Monday. Taylor, in a recorded message, introduced himself as a candidate, lambasted the current Congress and criticized Forbes for considering giving up his 4th District seat to run in the 2nd.

The recipients were then asked whether, "based on what you know," they would support Taylor or Forbes. Ninety-five percent said they favored Taylor, according to RoboCent.

Forbes, who hasn't spoken publicly about his plans, has been attempting to build support among political leaders and business executives in the 2nd. He and his supporters argue that if he's not returned to Congress, the defense-heavy region will lose its only senior lawmaker on a crucial panel overseeing the Pentagon. Forbes is chairman of the House Armed Services Committee's Seapower and Projection Forces subcommittee, which oversees Navy and Marine Corps programs.

Some others, including Virginia Beach Sheriff Ken Stolle, a Republican, oppose Forbes making the switch, saying the district should choose one of its own. The U.S. Constitution requires members of Congress to live in their states but not their specific districts.

Friends,

America deserves answers about the terrorist attack in Benghazi that killed four Americans, including a US Ambassador and two Navy SEALs. Virginia is taking the lead, with Congressman Wolf introducing legislation for a consolidated effort in getting accountability. Our Congressman, Scott Rigell is co-sponsoring Congressman Wolf's bill calling for a House Select Committee to investigate the tragedy.

As you may know, I serve as President of Special Operations OPSEC Education Fund, which led the effort to find answers and educated the public about national security leaks at the White House. OPSEC called for a House Select Committee to investigate what happened in Benghazi and let the truth come out to the American People. This was an urgent issue that needed action for all Virginians and all Americans.

In my letter to Congressman Frank Wolf, I urged action.

"We must have this Select Committee for those who fought for survival that night in Benghazi and for their families. But also we must have it for those who continue to put their lives on the line to keep us safe. All of them as well as the American people deserve to know the truth about why support was never deployed to assist Americans under siege in Libya that night." Scott Taylor, Former Navy SEAL

Read Scott's Full Letter to Congress, by Clicking Here.

I am proud of Virginia leadership and thankful for their support in finding answers. Over 100 Congressmen are co-sponsoring this needed legislation. Congress must pass H. Res 36, and we are pleased to provide support.

OPSEC released another hard hitting video, which has been watched over 21,000 times in one day. In the same period, it has generated over 5000 letters to Congress and 30 more members have cosponsored H. Res 36. Please watch this video and share it with your friends. Demand answers and insist that the truth be known.

Dear Friends:

We may be on the verge of revealing the largest cover up by a President since Watergate and we need to get to the truth!

OPSEC has rocked the political establishment with the release of a brand new revealing video, Benghazi: Unaware, Unresponsive, Unaccountable, that begins to uncover the truth about the horrific September 11th terrorist attack in Benghazi that left a U.S. Ambassador to Libya and heroic Navy SEALs dead.

Thanks to your action, OPSEC has added more than 70 new co-sponsors to House Resolution 36, that creates a Select Committee on the Terrorist Attack in Benghazi and launches a full Congressional investigation so we can know the truth -- and not the lies that we've been told.

But time short and our ad blitz aimed at Congress is in danger of going dark without an immediate infusion of funds.

Are you willing to help? Please click here to make an immediate contribution of $25, $50, $100, or more to keep our ads live and the pressure on Congress to do the right thing.

These ads work: We've helped add more than 70 new co-sponsors to this bill in just one week.

OPSEC is changing the course of what's happening in Washington and will reveal the truth about what happened in Benghazi....and the cover up that followed....if we can keep the pressure on.

Please act immediately by making a contribution right now. The time we have to launch this investigation is closing fast!

No one has been held accountable, no one has explained why the American public was deceived about of the attack, and we deserve to know the truth.

This Administration let our soldiers and diplomats pay the ultimate price while they sit comfortably in Washington refusing to give any explanation for why are our country's bravest were abandoned to die.

Is this the largest cover up since Watergate? America deserves to know the truth.

Sincerely,

Friends -- I'm sending you this rushed email because there's breaking news from Capitol Hill you need to hear right now about Benghazi.

Thanks to pressure from OPSEC supporters and many others, yesterday the House Committee on Government Reform and Oversight announced it will hold preliminary hearings on the Benghazi attacks that left four Americans dead with no answers or accountability.

This is a major victory. OPSEC's ad offensive is succeeding.

The reason I'm rushing this out to you is now is that the ad campaign forcing Congress to act is in dangerously close to running out of money.

Can you help OPSEC keep this campaign alive?

Follow this link to make an immediate donation that will go directly towards revealing the truth about what happened in Benghazi.

This may be the largest cover-up since Watergate by an American President and we can't pause -- even a second -- until we secure a full scale Select Committee Investigation on Benghazi.

An American Ambassador is dead. Heroic Navy SEALs are dead. And the Obama Administration is lying to us about what happened.

Demand truth and stand with us right now.

Sincerely,

Scott Taylor

"Delegate Stolle is a distinguished leader and is a man of strong character. I thank him for supporting me and am honored by his confidence. As your Delegate, I will work with him and others to improve the lives of the families living in our community, preserve and protect our freedoms, promote world class education, and support our veterans". Scott Taylor

From the Desk of Delegate Chris Stolle:

When I was first given the honor of serving the citizens of the 83rd district in 2009, the 83rd district included four precincts which are included in the 85th district due to redistricting. It was an honor to come to know and serve so many great citizens in the Kempsville area many of which are long-time Kempsville natives deeply committed to their community. I have also had the distinct honor to serve with Delegate Bob Tata as a member of the House Education Committee. Delegate Tata leaves a behind a deep legacy - the legacy of being a true public servant by putting the citizens of the district and our great Commonwealth ahead of politics. I was raised to believe that each of us have a responsibility to serve our community in some way, and I share Delegate Tata's commitment to doing what's right for those you serve ahead of political gain.

The citizens of the 85th district deserve a representative in Richmond who will be ready on day one to continue Delegate Tata's legacy of public service. That is why I have endorsed Scott Taylor and I'm asking you to support him as well this Tuesday, June 11th. Here are my reasons:

1. I have known Scott since 2008 and I have grown to admire his work ethic. In fact, what many may not know is while campaigning over the past several months and while also working, Scott has also found time to further his own education by seeking a degree in International Relations from Harvard. Scott shares my dedication to life-long learning and I look forward to working with him to ensure our students receive a first class education regardless of their zip code.

2. Scott has been an advocate for veterans and serves as the Chairman of the OPSEC Education Fund. As a fellow Navy veteran and the Vice-Chair of the Board of Veterans Services, I know Scott will be a valued team member of the Military Caucus working to make Virginia the best state in the country for veterans.

3. Scott has already proven while serving as a NAVY SEAL that he possesses the mindset of a team player to get the job done. Our great city will be without three senior members of the Virginia Beach delegation when the legislature reconvenes in January. I'm confident that if elected, Scott will work closely with all the Virginia Beach delegation to prompt our city and our region on day one!

I ask you to please support Scott Taylor on June 11th.
Regards,

Delegate Chris Stolle

A new poll <http://www.rollcall.com/> internal-poll-opponent-carpetbag that has Navy SEAL Scott Taylor in a statistical tie with his opponent 16 year member of Congress Randy Forbes. Forbes abandoned his people in his district to move to another to save his own butt. Typical Washington politician!
